

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

United States of America

v.

Ronette Short,

Defendant.

Deferred Prosecution Agreement

22 Mag. 9609

DOC #

TO: Ronette Short

On November 29, 2022, a criminal complaint was issued by a United States Magistrate Judge in the Southern District of New York, in which you are accused of committing an offense against the United States, to wit, wire fraud, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1343 and 2.

You hereby admit to the facts set forth in the November 29, 2022 complaint. Specifically, from in or about June 2020 up to and including in or around September 2020, you filed two fraudulent Economic Injury Disaster Loan ("EIDL") applications with the Small Business Administration ("SBA"). The fraudulent EIDL applications were submitted on behalf of a sole proprietorship in your own name and on behalf of the company "Neat Streaks Inc." The EIDL applications contained false statements, including statements regarding the number of employees your purported businesses had and their gross revenue in the 12-month period ending January 31, 2020.

Although you have admitted to this conduct, after a thorough investigation it has been determined that the interest of the United States and your own interest will best be served by deferring prosecution in this District. Prosecution will be deferred during the term of your good behavior and satisfactory compliance with the terms of this agreement for the period of six months from the signing of this agreement. The terms and conditions constituting your good behavior and satisfactory compliance are as follows:

- (1) You shall refrain from violation of any law (federal, state and local). You shall immediately contact your U.S. Pretrial Services Officer if arrested or questioned by a law-enforcement officer.
- (2) You shall associate only with law-abiding persons.
- (3) You shall work regularly at a lawful occupation and/or regularly attend school and support your legal dependents, if any, to the best of your ability. When out of work or not attending school you shall notify your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer at once. You shall consult him or her prior to job and school changes.

- (4) You shall notify your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer immediately of any change in your place of residence.
- (5) You shall follow your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer's instructions and advice.
- (6) You shall report to your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer as directed.
- (7) You shall pay restitution to the United States Small Business Administration ("SBA") in the amount of $49,000. To satisfy this restitution obligation, you shall pay $150 each month to the SBA.

As a further condition you hereby consent to disclosure, by any federal, state or local government agency, or by any medical or substance abuse treatment provider, to the U.S. Pretrial Services Officer supervising your case, of such medical and treatment records as may be requested by the Pretrial Services Officer to evaluate deferral of prosecution in this case. You further agree that you will execute any additional consent forms that any such agency or provider may require to release such information.

Special conditions are as follows:

The United States Attorney may at any time revoke or modify any condition of this provisional release or change the period of such supervision. The United States Attorney may discharge you from supervision at any time. The United States Attorney may at any time proceed with the prosecution for this offense should the United States Attorney, in his or her sole discretion, deem such action advisable.

If upon completion of your supervision a written report from your supervising U.S. Pretrial Services Officer is received to the effect that you have complied with all the rules, regulations and conditions and special conditions applicable to your deferred prosecution, no further prosecution will be instituted in this District for the above offense.
